FREDERICK AND ALEXANDER

Two mouse stories based on the children's book by Leo Lionni

All the mice are surprised by Frederick: while they are busily collecting grains and straw for the winter, he spends the whole day dreaming away completely idly. But after all the supplies have been used up, the mice are amazed: Frederick has also collected something very special for the winter: Sunbeams, colours and stories.

Alexander would love to be like his friend Willi, the wind-up mouse who everyone loves! But Alexander is unfortunately just an ordinary mouse. He decides to let himself be transformed by the mysterious magic lizard. But when he is very close to his goal, unexpected things happen ...
